Matthew W. Cross

- Menominee County Circuit Court grants summary disposition in favor of City of Menominee and against unsuccessful cannabis business license applicants.
- Claims alleged violations of Michigan's Open Meetings and Regulation and Taxation of Marihuana acts, as well as U.S. Constitution's equal protection and due process clauses.
- After nearly two years in litigation, all five cases were dismissed!

The Right Result

Congratulations to Plunkett Cooney attorney Matt Cross and his client, the City of Menominee, on their summary disposition win in five cases brought by unsuccessful cannabis business license applicants!
